About KASK

KASK is an Italian company born in 2004 specialized in developing, designing and manufacturing helmets of the highest quality. In every field of application KASK helmets are at the forefront, be it skiing, cycling, horse riding, rescue or the safety world. Innovative and attractive, the entire KASK collection is a perfect balance between technological excellence, functionality, safety, comfort and exclusive Made in Italy design.

KASK cycling helmets are used by all kinds of riders across all disciplines – road, mountain bike, triathlon, track, cyclo-cross, commuting and urban – and KASK is proud of its sponsorship of, and development in conjunction with, many leading teams and athletes. These include road teams: six-time Tour de France winning Team Sky, The Italian and Australian Federations, Bennelong SwissWellness Cycling Team, Polartec-Kometa Team, UCI Continental Team JLT Condor; and professional women's teams including Cervélo-Bigla Pro Cycling, Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling, Lares-Waowdeals and Team Hitec Products. Professional triathletes include Chris McDonald, Andy Potts, Michelle Vesterby, and Asa Lundström. KASK proudly sponsors the German Centurion Vaude mountain bike team, Jordi Bago, US MTB star Sonya Looney, Chloe Woodruff and Stan's Pivot Pro Team, and in cyclocross, MUDIITA Cycling Team and Jeremy Powers
